

Saint Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville South Carolina

from the pastor

Dear Friends in Christ,

1. Three hours of Confessions remain for those who have been away from the Sacrament of Penance for a few months or years. From 5 to 6 pm on the next three Thursdays (20 and 27 March and 3 April), the door is open just for those who are reluctant to go to Confession or who have been putting it off for so long that it now seems impossible to go back. Now is the acceptable time! Now is the day of salvation! The Lord Jesus offers loving-kindness and mercy, and he calls you by name to come follow him. Come to Confession and renew your friendship with the Lord Jesus.

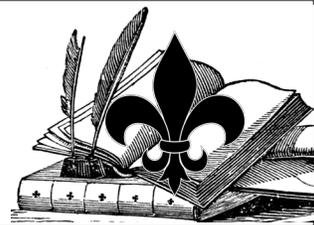

2. This week the sacred liturgy celebrates the lives of three men of great importance to the Church. Monday is the memorial of St. Patrick (died 461), who brought Christianity to Ireland. Tuesday is the memorial of St. Cyril of Jerusalem (died 386), who became Bishop of the Holy City in 348 and is remembered for brilliant catechetical essays and homilies on the sacred liturgy and the sacraments. And Wednesday is the Solemnity of St. Joseph, Spouse of the Virgin Mary, Foster Father of the Lord Jesus, and Patron of the Universal Church. One of the most praiseworthy disciplines of Lent is attending Mass each day of the week, and this week the remembrance of these three saints provides a special incentive to come to weekday Mass.

3. In 1997, NBC and the Wall Street Journal conducted a national poll on the place of religion in the lives of Americans, and that same poll was conducted again a few weeks ago. In 1997, 14% of Americans reported that religion was “not that important” in their lives, and in 2014 the number of those who gave that same answer has risen to 21%. This falling away from religion is an illustration of what is often called secularization – the trend away from a worldview formed by religious faith towards one in which religion has no place or only a marginal place, and it cuts across all segments of our society. When confronted with this trend, too many Christians begin to look for ways to make the Gospel and the Church “more attractive” by trying to change the sacred liturgy, the doctrine of the faith, our organizational forms, etc. But such a response to secularization assumes that we are offering a product in the marketplace and that to increase our market share, we just need to tweak the product line and get better advertising. To think that way is to reveal that one has not heard and understood the Gospel of Jesus Christ, who promised us that we would be opposed, rejected and persecuted just as he was. By our Baptism we are called to friendship with the Lord Jesus and a share in his Cross, and Christ sends us in the Great Commission to continue his work among the nations by proclaiming the Gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, and caring for the least of his brethren until the Last Day. Want to resist the trend of secularization? Invite someone to come with you to Mass. Ask a friend to pray the Liturgy of the Hours with you. Give a good book about our faith to a neighbor or colleague who is searching for ... well, for something or Someone not yet known. Volunteer to serve someone in need. This is how we proclaim the Gospel. Praised be Jesus Christ! Now and forever!

CATHOLICISM

THE NEW EVANGELIZATION

Event Location:
St. Mary's Catholic Church
Downtown Greenville
McGrady Hall
(the church undercroft)

Thursday
20 March
@ 6.30 pm

Blessed Pope John Paul II first called for a “new evangelization” some thirty years ago. Throughout his pontificate, the Holy Father encouraged renewed efforts in proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ to all who seek the truth. The “new evangelization” seeks to share anew the basic Christian message of salvation and faith in Jesus Christ to people of today. By virtue of Baptism, every Christian is called to bear witness, in words and in deeds, to the truth and beauty of faith in Jesus Christ. Join us as we go through Fr. Barron’s new Series on the New Evangelization, and learn how each of us can participate in this important call.

"But when he came to himself he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have bread enough and to spare, but I perish here with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me as one of your hired servants."' And he arose and came to his father. But while he was yet at a distance, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his servants, 'Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet; and bring the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and make merry; for this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.' And they began to make merry."

Day of the Unborn Child

The Solemnity of the Annunciation reminds us once again that what we have learned from science can never contradict what has been revealed to us through revelation: That the life of each human being, unique and unrepeatable, begins at the moment of his or her conception. Thus "the word was made flesh and dwelt among us" at the Annunciation. To celebrate The Solemnity of the Annunciation the Knights of Columbus, Council 1668 and the Our Lady of the Rosary Respect Life Committee will hold a special Rosary service for The Day of the Unborn Child on Tuesday 25 March 25 at 7.00 pm at Our Lady of the Rosary Church.

CULTURE OF LIFE NEWS

“The euthanasia movement always viewed the living will as the foot in the door to legal and social acceptance of euthanasia. For our society to condone its members’ bringing about their own deaths is, of course, a terrible tragedy. It speaks volumes about our failure to adequately comfort and care for the troubled, the sick and the dying. Economic and demographic factors, such as the increasing cost of health care, and aging population and a shrinking base of wage earners, also contributes to the concern that the “beneficiaries” of euthanasia could easily expand to the elderly, to the poor - indeed, to any “burdensome” member of society. In sum, it is vitally important to understand that everyone’s most basic right - the right to life - is in jeopardy when our law and collective morality no longer view all persons as equally worthy of life, solely on the basis of our common humanity. Not only is it the right thing to do, it is also in our own best interests to protect and cherish weak and vulnerable members of our human family. In order to do that, we must educate ourselves and others about the growing threat of euthanasia, vigorously oppose its legalization and pray for the wisdom and compassion to properly comfort, care for and dissuade those considering suicide.” - American Life League.

Spiritual Adoption - Month 7

You are in the home stretch with your spiritually adopted baby. Beginning this month the baby uses all four senses. He can see, hear, taste, touch, cough, yawn and hiccup. He now recognizes his mother’s voice, and ultrasound reveals that he likes to open his eyes and look around. During this time he will also receive antibodies from his mother protecting him from a wide variety of diseases.

Please continue to pray for you spiritually adopted baby by saying the following prayer -

“Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.”

40 Days for Life Campaign - 5 March - 14 April - 1142 Grove Road

You have been invited to join Christians throughout the Upstate to take part in our local 40 Days for Life Campaign. Don’t forget! Starting on Tuesday 11 March we hope to see a great number of our parishioners standing up for LIFE by going to pray outside the abortion mill. If Tuesdays are really not convenient for you, perhaps you can go on another day.

You can register online by visiting www.40daysforlife.com/greenville and choose a time which is suitable for you. Should you encounter any problems with registration, please be sure to call Ingrid Ireland at 864.329.0044 or JoAnn Gorman at 864.248.0264.
