

St. Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville, South Carolina

15 March 2015

Dear Friends in Christ,

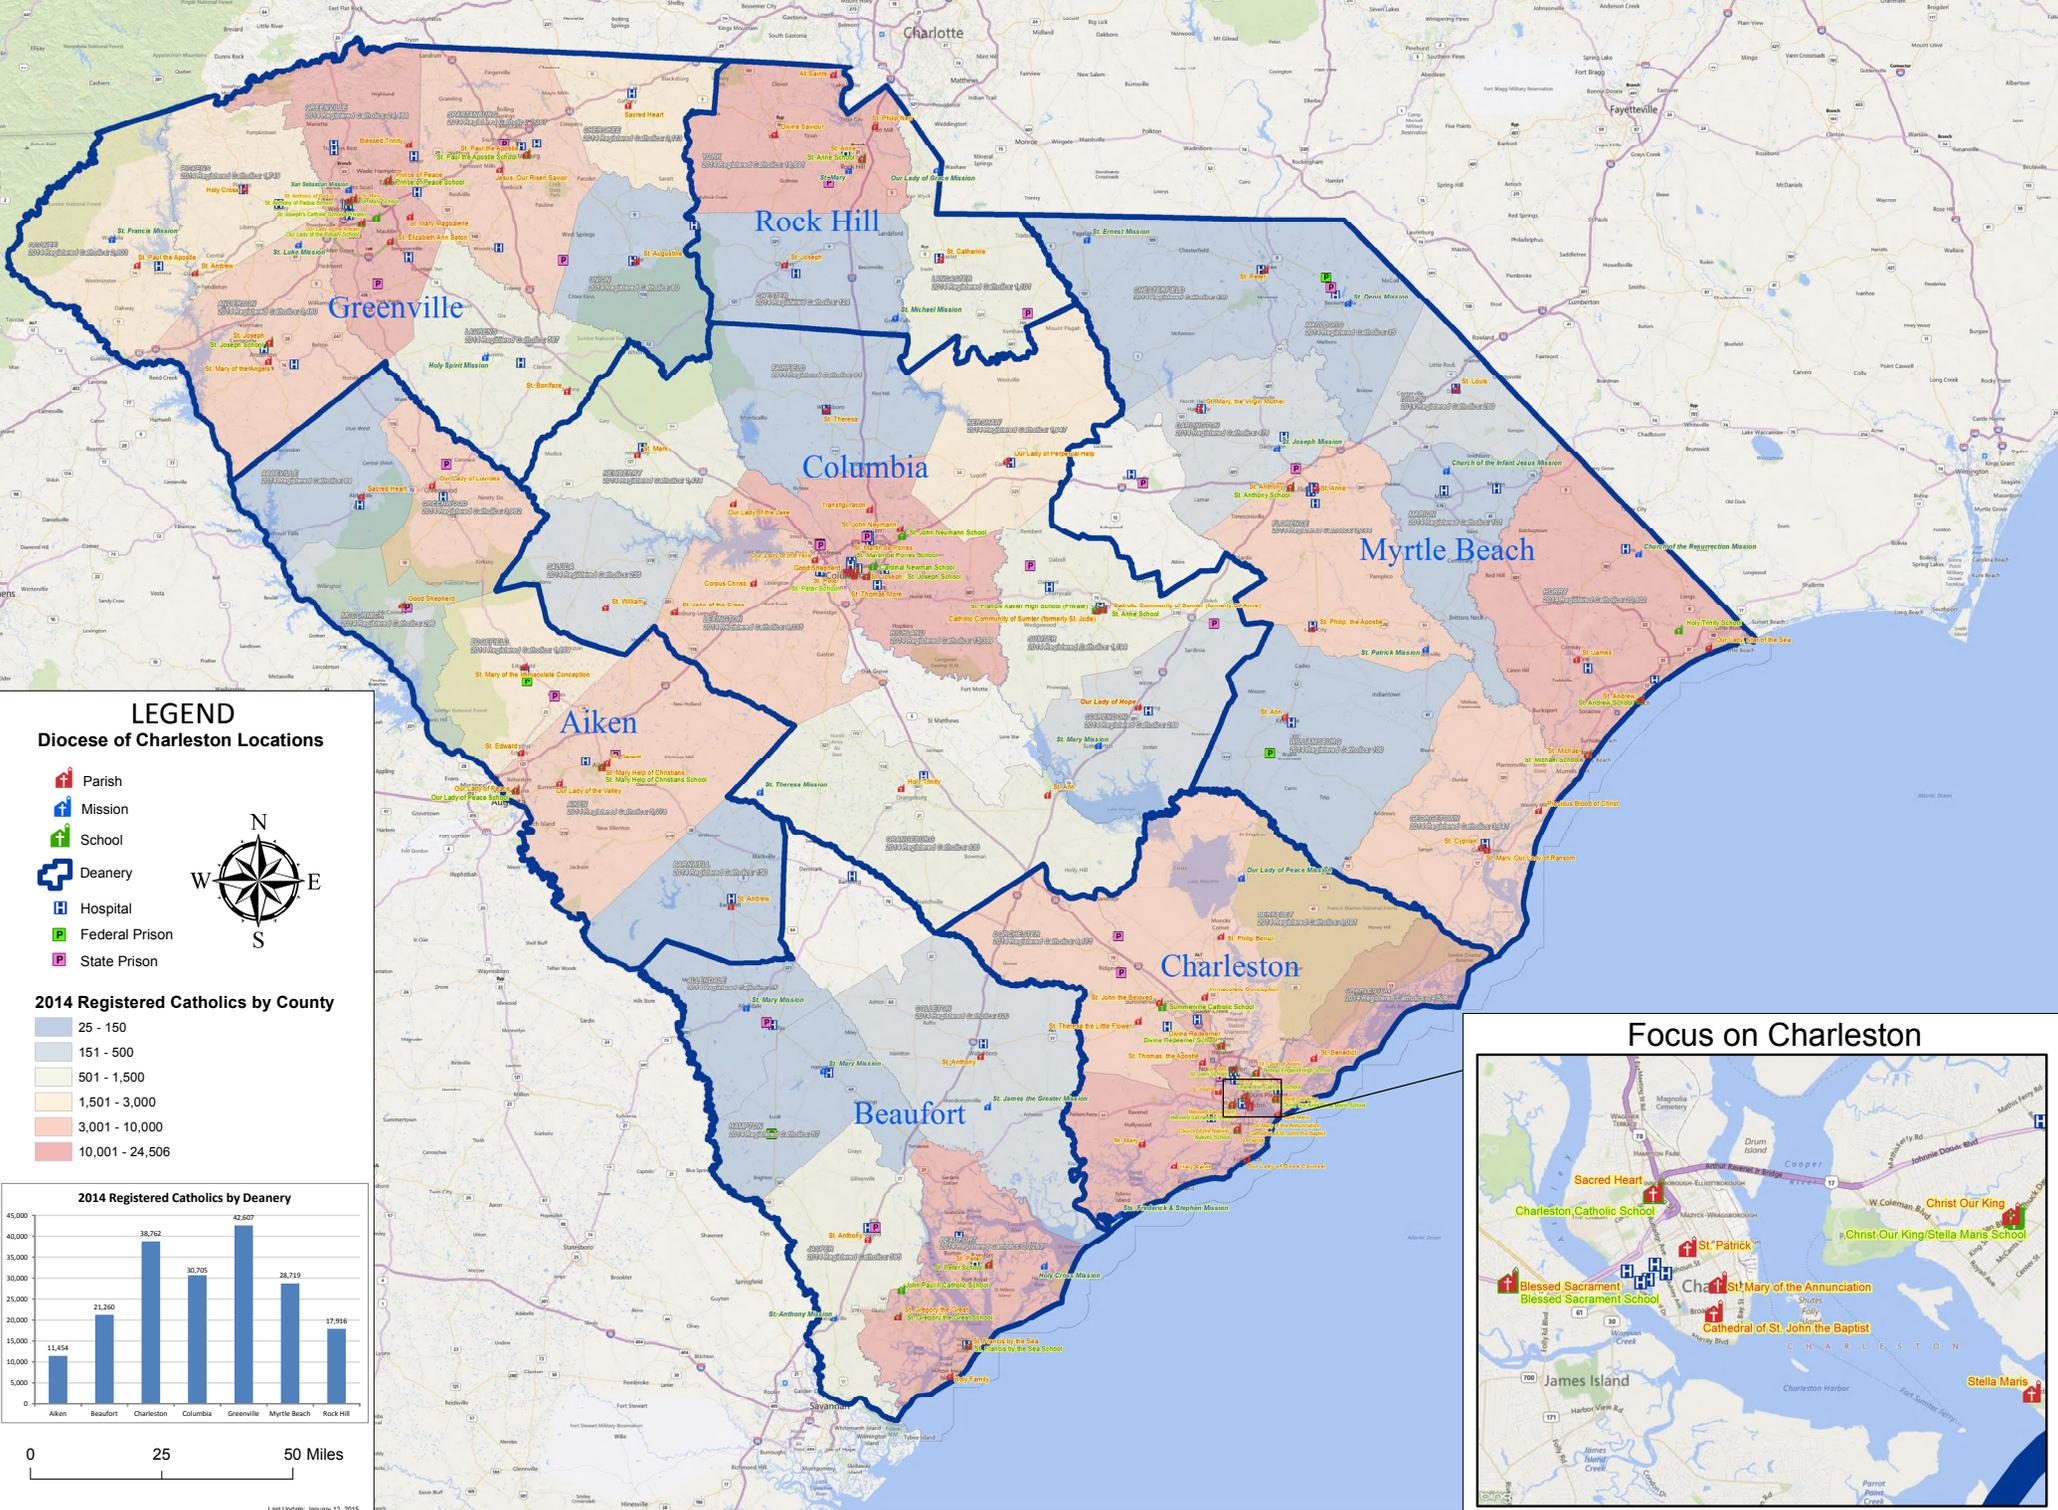

The full and complete reality of the one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church exists in every diocese (or, in the Christian East, eparchy), because each diocese or eparchy consists of a bishop surrounded by priests and deacons, together serving all of the baptized in the territory of the Particular Church. This is why the diocese, not the parish, is the basic theological and canonical unit of the Church's life. But to facilitate the coordination of all pastoral activity in its several parishes, every diocese in the universal Church is subdivided into smaller districts called deaneries or vicariates forane – from the Latin word “foraneus” meaning outside of the city, in this case the See City or place in which the diocesan bishop resides. These deaneries or vicariates forane are created by the diocesan bishop along geographical lines so that groups of neighboring parishes may cooperate in a variety of ways to fulfill the Great Commission, and from time to time the boundaries of deaneries are adjusted to reflect the changing circumstances of the diocesan Church.

Several months ago Bishop Guglielmone asked the Presbyteral Council (a group or senate of priests who advise the bishop) to consider the possibility of modifying the boundaries of our deaneries, and the diocesan Office of Research and Planning provided detailed demographic data for the Council's consideration. In January, the Council unanimously recommended to Bishop Gugliemone that he establish two new deaneries, and he accepted that recommendation. Accordingly, on Easter Sunday the number of deaneries in the Diocese of Charleston will go from five to seven, and this growth reflects the increase in the number of Catholics in South Carolina. For many years, our five deaneries have been named according to their region in the state (the Pee Dee Deanery, Coastal Deanery, Low Country Deanery, Midlands Deanery, and Piedmont Deanery), but with the creation of the two new vicariates the names will change to reflect the principal city in each deanery: Charleston, Myrtle Beach, Beaufort, Columbia, Rock Hill, Aiken, and Greenville.

Most Catholics know little about these structures, and the creation of the new deaneries will be felt in the pew not at all. But to the priests who serve our parishes and to the bishop's staff who assist him in fulfilling his duties to teach, sanctify and govern the Church in South Carolina, this change signifies a new day in our diocese and will help us respond more effectively to the steady growth of the Diocese of Charleston. In the e-bulletin we are including a map of the territories of the seven deaneries, and you will not be surprised to learn that the largest number of Catholics, by a substantial margin, live within the Greenville Deanery – an encouraging fact that should spur us all to a renewed dedication to leading others to saving faith in the Lord Jesus through radical conversion, deep fidelity, joyful discipleship and courageous evangelism.

Praised be Jesus Christ! Now and forever!

“But when he came to himself he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired servants have bread enough and to spare, but I perish here with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me as one of your hired servants.”’ And he arose and came to his father. But while he was yet at a distance, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. And the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’ But the father said to his servants, ‘Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet; and bring the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and make merry; for this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.’ And they began to make merry.” - St. Luke 15.17-24.

STUDY

Women's Book Study

Tuesday

St. Francis Eastside - Room 201

Father Karol Wojtyla (Pope John Paul II) published Love and Responsibility in 1960, the fruit of his pastoral work, particularly among young people. His analysis of the true meaning of human love is life-transforming and practical, shedding light on real issues between men and women.

Edward Sri unpacks the contents of this great work, making it accessible to every reader. The author emphasizes the down-to-earth nature of Love and Responsibility, helping readers appropriate practical information.

The Call to Joyful Discipleship

Young Adult Spring Retreat

April 17-19, 2015
Camp St. Christopher - Seabrook Island, SC

Roman Catholic Diocese of Charleston
Office of Youth & Young Adult Ministry

The Call to Joyful Discipleship

'May the world of our time, which is searching, sometimes with anguish, sometimes with hope, be enabled to receive the Good News, not from evangelizers who are dejected, discouraged, impatient or anxious, but from ministers of the Gospel whose lives glow with fervor, who have first received the joy of Christ.'
-Pope Francis, Evangelii Gaudium

As we are reminded in 1 Peter 1:8-9 'Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy, or you are receiving the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.' We have been individually called by God to joyfully manifest His presence on earth. However, in a world full of fear and suffering the ability to be that witness can sometimes seem daunting. But with God all things are possible. By our Baptism sealed by Confirmation and nourished by the sacraments, we are able to heroically live out the calling to Joyful Discipleship in a time where the need has never been greater. So, join us for a weekend of strengthening our knowledge and faith in our identity as sons and daughters who joyfully proclaim the Gospel throughout life's daily challenges.

"Each of you has a personal vocation which He has given you for your own joy and sanctity. When a person is conquered by the fire of His gaze, no sacrifice seems too great to follow Him and give Him the best of ourselves. This is what the saints have always done, spreading the light of the Lord ... and transforming the world into a welcoming home for everyone." - Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI

Who should come?
