

St. Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville, South Carolina

21 June 2015

Dear Friends in Christ,

To all the Dads among us, Happy Father's Day. And as we give thanks for the gift of fatherhood, I am grateful for the grace of being the spiritual father of our parish family. Next Sunday is the 14th anniversary of my service as the 16th pastor of St. Mary's, and I have now served longer than all but two of my predecessors: Monsignor Gwynn and Monsignor Baum. In these 14 years I have often thought of them and their combined 73 years of service to St. Mary's, and as it has been from the start, my hope is to spend the rest of life here and then to rest in their company at the door of the church they did so much to build.

Being a parish priest is a remarkable way of life, and I am grateful every day for this privilege. To preach the Gospel, administer the sacraments, guide the life of our parish, and walk with you in the Way of the Cross is an adventure every day, and I thank God for this gift. I also thank you for your witness to Christ and for the many ways you serve the Lord Jesus and the least of his brethren.

During the recent ordination which we hosted here and the 50th anniversary of an ordination that came two weeks before that, we were joined by hundreds of guests from other parishes, and seeing one's own home through the eyes of visitors can be an enlightening experience. They spoke to me about their delight in the beauty of our campus, the nobility of our church, the splendor of our music, the transcendence of our liturgy, and the gracious welcome of our people. In other words, our visitors saw here what all of us strive so hard to make and sustain: a Christian community of grace and warmth and rest from the world's burdens where all who gather can find the peace which the world cannot give. Hearing the comments of our guests made me thankful for our many blessings and grateful for your dedication to our parish.

Perhaps the most unexpected blessing of these years is the flowering of priestly vocations. In the past decade, four sons of St. Mary's (Fathers Christopher Smith, Michael Cassabon, Renaud West and Roger Morgan) have been ordained for the Diocese of Charleston, while Father Dwight Longenecker and Father Jon Chalmers were also ordained here at our altar. Remember that the Wednesday afternoon Holy Hour is offered for vocations to the priesthood and religious life, and I encourage every family in the parish to make this intention part of your household prayers as well. Ask the Lord to send us priests, fathers for God's family.

St. Paul wrote to the Christians in Corinth that he became their father in Christ Jesus through the Gospel (cf 1 Corinthians 4.15), and that is why the most beloved title of priests is Father.

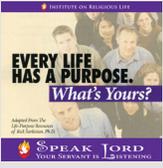

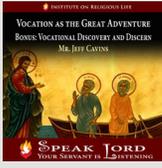

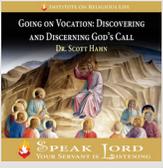

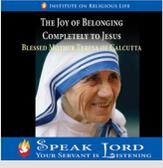

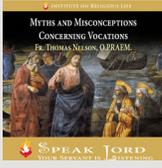

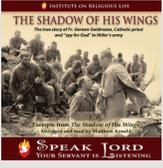

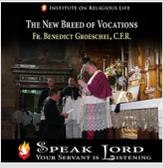

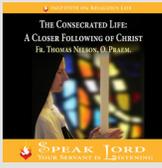

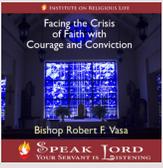

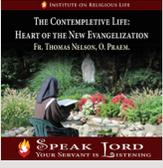

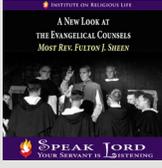

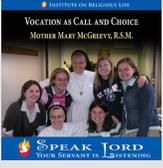

Praised be Jesus Christ. Now and forever.

Father Newman

Summer Seminarian

Rhett Williams is a seminarian for the Diocese of Charleston and will be with us at St. Mary's during June and July for his summer internship. Rhett is an alumnus of Bishop England High School and Furman University, Class of 2007. After college, Rhett served for three years with the Peace Corps in El Salvador before returning to Charleston to work for the diocesan Office of Vocations. After being accepted as a seminarian, Rhett was sent to the University of Dallas to study philosophy and was subsequently assigned to the Catholic University of America in Washington, DC to complete a licentiate in philosophy. Bishop Guglielmone assigned Rhett to remain at CUA for his studies in sacred theology, the first of four years of which he just completed. Rhett will be participating in and observing many areas of parish life during the next two months, as he learns some of the practical dimensions of being a parish priest. Please pray for Rhett and the other men who are preparing for priestly ministry in South Carolina.

INTRODUCTION TO CATHOLICISM

Starting Wednesday
9 September @ 6.30 pm
in Sacred Heart Hall

Interested in becoming a Catholic?
Or just want learn more about what Catholics believe?

Introduction to Catholicism is an introduction to the beliefs and practices of the Catholic Church, and anyone who wants to understand the Catholic Faith more deeply is invited to participate. This course meets each Wednesday evening from Labor Day until Easter. Those who have never been baptized, those who were baptized but never confirmed, and those simply seeking to know more are all welcome to attend.

While this course is first and foremost a process for bringing non-Catholic adults into the Church, it is also a great place for practicing Catholics to increase their knowledge of foundational Church teaching - in particular on those topics that often come up in conversations with non-Catholics. One practical thing that any parishioner could do to evangelize would be to invite a non-Catholic friend who might be interested in learning what the Catholic Church really teaches to join you in attending when the class begins in the fall.

Vacation Bible School 2015 Cathletics Training To Be Champions For Christ

It was truly an amazing week - 75 children, 42 teen helpers, and 25 adult volunteers, and a week long program learning about Ten Commandments, Practicing the Beatitudes, the Fruits of the Spirit and Becoming Champions for Christ. We learned all about St. John Paul II, St. Anne, Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati, St. Marguerite D'Youville, and St. Francis Xavier. We also studied a virtue each day: Excellence, Prudence, Fortitude, Temperance and Justice. The children completed beautiful crafts including Bible book covers and each child received their own Bible, Ten Commandments Sports Bracelets, Beatitude poster, Champion For Christ Flags and each day the children took home a saint card for the day.

Special thanks to Elizabeth McLeer (chair), Kayla Weston (crafts), Cristina Ortiz (faith), Judy Harrington (games), Kelly Burns (music), Jessica Devine (nursery), Aziza Stansberry (saints & virtues), Amy David, (snacks), Seminarian Rhett Williams and Sean Rusnak (our special guest). Also thanks to Kay Betsch, Megan Eaton, Juli Feltes, Karen Joseph, Judy Lema, Maureen Lesley, George, Michael & Mairin McLeer, Jacinta & Rosemarie Ortiz, Philip Paluszak, Amanda Pelicano, Jessica Sadowski, Elise Teague, Janice Teixeira, Shana Upham, Heather Vreeman, Lousie Wadas, who were group leaders or assisted in the special areas.

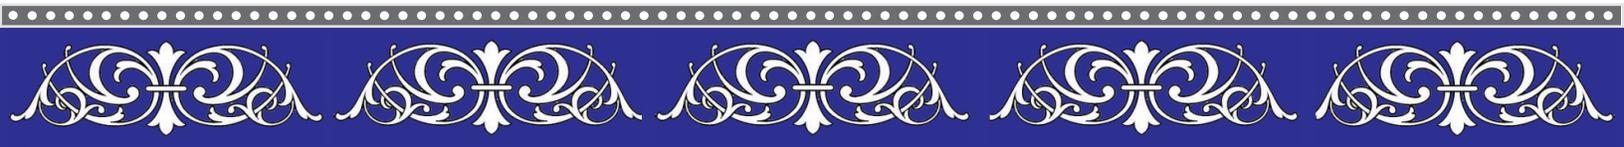

We would also like to thank the teen volunteers, who gave their time, making VBS a huge success. Please know that we are grateful, and it could not have happened without you. Just to name a few who went the extra mile with the preparation and execution: Catherine Morris at Fireside Bibles Publishers, St. Mary's Woman's Club, Chantelle Getty at Sherwin Williams, Arlen Clarke, Lisa Bethea, Nathan & Spencer Chea, Jenni Dillard, Grace Doiron Audrey Pelicano, and Lisa Watkins.

Thanks to Father Newman, the families shared in a special Mass on Friday and it was a great way to end our week.

Then to top it off the children brought in canned meats for the United Ministries as a service project.

Great job!

Have a great summer!
