

St. Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville, South Carolina

12 March 2017

Dear Friends in Christ,

Ecclesia semper reformanda. The Church is always in need of being reformed because Christians are always in need of being reformed. The Church is also always holy because the Holy Spirit dwells within her and gives her life as the soul does in the body. This dual dimension of the Church's life – always holy and always in need of being reformed – is part of the drama of the Christian faith in every age, and Lent is a privileged time to explore the ways in which personal reformation is needed.

On Ash Wednesday we heard the Word of the Lord from the Prophet Joel: "Return to me with your whole heart ... rend your hearts not your garments." We need to return to God with our whole heart because our hearts are divided, and all of us have experienced the struggle between the desire to do what is right and the desire to do what we want. That interior division and struggle between the man I am and the man I should be is at the heart of all Christian conversion and discipleship, and there is zero possibility of being a disciple of Jesus Christ without a life-changing commitment to continuing conversion from sin and selfishness. But to be open to such ongoing conversion requires that we accept the truth of the Gospel and surrender to that truth in the obedience of faith, and that is why the Lord Jesus insists that being authentic disciples demands our acceptance of his saving doctrine. "If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free." (John 8.31-32)

Our conversion from sin begins at Baptism, but it must continue all the days of our lives. Four of the seven sacraments confer the forgiveness of sins, and they are: Baptism, the Holy Eucharist, the Anointing of the Sick, and Penance. After Baptism, the only ordinary way in which grave sins are forgiven is by receiving the Sacrament of Penance, by going to Confession. Catholics are bound (remember the power of binding and loosing, given by the Lord Jesus to his Apostles?) to go to Confession at least once each year as part of their Easter duty, and any Catholic who has not been to Confession in at least a year is no longer in full communion with Christ and his Church. Please use these 40 Days of preparation for Easter to go to Confession, and you can do that here on Saturday and Wednesday afternoons at the posted hours, by making an appointment with any of the priests at St Mary's, or by visiting any of the ten Catholic churches in Greenville County for the regular times of Confessions. You can also take advantage of many priests hearing Confessions at 7 pm on Monday 3 April at St Mary Magdalene, Simpsonville. Finally, on Wednesday of Holy Week, 12 April, Father Bart at St Rafka and Father Dwight at Our Lady of Rosary will be hearing Confessions from mid-morning to late afternoon.

Father Newman

Dear people of St. Mary's,

Praised be Jesus Christ! Although I have been gone for four (4) years at Aquinas College in Nashville, TN, St. Mary's is my home parish and I am excited to tell you that I have been accepted to the Dominican Province of St. Joseph. In seven years, God willing, I will be ordained a Dominican friar. As a son of St. Mary's, this parish was the fertile ground where my vocation grew, and now I am ready to take the active step of entering formation for the Dominican Order.

However, I need your help. I cannot enter the novitiate without first resolving my student loans. It turns out that this is a common problem in our country, and that almost half of the 10,000 candidates for priesthood and religious life are in the same situation. In order to not only enter formation myself but also support others like myself, I have joined the Labouré Society, an organization whose sole purpose is to help candidates overcome student debt and enter formation in their respective communities. I am inviting you to invest in my vocation and that of my 23 classmates as we undertake a six month fundraising campaign across the country.

I look forward to visiting the parish on March 19 and personally asking for your support!

Wil Bernhard

Lenten Topics Class Canceled

Because of schedule conflicts Father Newman has canceled the four week course that he planned to teach on Thursday evenings beginning 9 March 2017. And instead of those four classes, we will have one Thursday event for Lent.

Please join us at 6.30 pm on Thursday 30 March to watch Mel Gibson's "The Passion of the Christ." This extraordinary film, released in 2004, is a dramatic tour de force that places the audience in the midst of the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and many lives have been opened to God's grace by sharing the experience of this film.

We will gather in Gallivan Hall to watch this movie on our newly installed digital projector and large screen which rival a cinema experience. Because of the intensity of this film, no one under sixteen will be admitted, and at the end of the show, we will have a discussion of the film to explore its theological and spiritual dimensions.

Plan now to join us at 6.30 pm on Thursday 30 March in Gallivan Hall for "The Passion of the Christ."

Friday Lenten Dinners

Women's Club members will serve soup and grilled cheese sandwiches in the Pazdan Hall Dining Room after all Stations of the Cross through Friday 7 April. Please join fellow parishioners for this devotion that commemorates 14 key events on the day of Christ's crucifixion and a Lenten dinner and fellowship afterwards. There is no cost.

Special Collection on 18/19 March Educating Priests in the Missions

The Church needs priests to preach the Gospel and celebrate the sacraments, and the cost of educating priests can be a heavy burden on dioceses with limited resources, particularly in mission territories like Africa and Asia. The Holy Father asks that dioceses in the developed world provide financial help for the education of priests in the Missions, and we will be taking a second collection in Lent to do our part. On the weekend of 18 and 19 March, everything donated in our second collection will go the Society of St Peter the Apostle, the Church's official fundraising body for the training of clergy in the missions. Thank you for your generosity.

CHARLESTON VOCAIONS

Catholic Diocese of Charleston, SC

If you are discerning a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life, contact the Vocations Office.

Prayer for Seminarians

O Lord Jesus Christ, great High Priest, I pray that You call many worthy souls to Your holy priesthood.

Enlighten the Bishop in the choice of candidates, the Spiritual Director in molding them, and the professors in instructing them.

Lead the seminarians daily in Your unerring footsteps; so that they may become priests who are models of purity, possessors of wisdom and heroes of sacrifice; steeped in humility and aflame with love for God and man; apostles of Your glory and sanctifiers of souls. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

Loving and gracious God, Father of all, you bless your people in every time and season and provide for their needs through your providential care. Your Church is continually in need of priests, sisters and brothers to offer themselves in the service of the Gospel by lives of dedicated love. Open the hearts of your sons and daughters to listen to your call in their lives. Give them the gift of understanding to discern your invitation to serve you and your Church. Give them the gift of courage to follow your call. May they have the spirit of young Samuel who found fulfillment in his life when he said to you, "Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening." We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Redeemer. Amen.
