

St. Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville, South Carolina

26 March 2017

Dear Friends in Christ,

Catholics use the word “Church” in a variety of ways. In the first sense, we speak of the universal Catholic Church, and we usually indicate this meaning by the use of the capital “C.” This is the worldwide assembly of disciples established by the Lord Jesus on the foundation of the apostles and which was first found only in Jerusalem but which from the beginning had a universal mission and scope. This is the Church we confess in the Creed to be one, holy, catholic, and apostolic.

As the disciples were dispersed from Jerusalem, they organized Christian communities in the various cities where they took refuge, and then in the great missionary journeys of Saint Paul and the other apostles, Christian communities were planted where none had been before. Within the lifetime of the apostles, these local communities were also spoken of as “churches,” and we now call these diocesan churches. These are the gatherings of Catholics presided over by a bishop who is assisted by a group or college of priests and deacons, and it is the diocesan Church that our tradition calls the “particular” or local Church to distinguish it from the universal Church found all over the world. The universal Church comes before all particular Churches in time and being, but in each diocese, the particular Church is the full expression of the universal Church. So, for example, the Catholic Church in South Carolina is the Diocese of Charleston. And to this we must add the Churches of the Christian East which have their own bishops and liturgical Rites, like our Maronite brethren. So the Diocese of Saint Maron, to which the Church of Saint Rafka belongs, is also a “particular Church.”

All of this is by way of saying that Catholics do not believe that the local congregation is the fundamental unit of the universal Church's life. Or, to put it otherwise, we are not congregationalists. Nevertheless, from Christian antiquity every diocese has been organized into parishes, and now I come to my main point. No Catholic is in full communion with the universal Church or with his or her proper diocesan Church until and unless he or she is living fully the Catholic faith and life in one specific parish church. It is by full participation in the life of one parish church that a Catholic participates fully in the life of the whole Church. To do this requires one to worship each Sunday at one's proper parish, to share fully in the life of that parish, to contribute to the support of that parish, and - according to present custom - to be registered in that parish. Those Catholics are true parishioners of this parish church who come to Mass here each week, who are involved in some way in the life of the parish, who support the parish with their time, talent, and treasure according to the stewardship guidelines, and who are registered here. We invite everyone who visits St. Mary's to become a true parishioner by observing these simple precepts, because only by being truly a member of one parish church are we fully involved in the life of both the diocesan Church and the universal Church.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Soon our diocese will take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection (CRSC). By participating in this collection, you are responding to Jesus in disguise in some of the most marginalized communities in our world. The CRSC provides services for immigrants, humanitarian aid in the wake of natural disasters, refuge for the displaced, and advocacy for peace and justice around the world. Let us join together in this collection to support those suffering and on the margins of society.

For example, in Niger, changes in climate in western Africa are adversely affecting poor and rural farmers. No matter how hard these farmers work, droughts are shortening the rainy season, leaving harvests too small to support families and communities. Your support of the CRSC helps connect businesses that provide drought-resistant seeds to these communities. These new relationships provide hope to these communities for a sustainable future.

Your support of this collection makes a difference for so many around the world. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the collection this year. To learn more about the collection and the people who benefit, please visit www.usccb.org/catholic-relief.

Support the collection and answer the knock of Jesus in disguise.

In the Lord's Peace,

Most Reverend Robert E. Guglielmo
Bishop of Charleston

Collection Date for the Diocese of Charleston is March 26, 2017

30 March @ 6.30 pm Gallivan Hall

Please join us at 6.30 pm on Thursday 30 March to watch Mel Gibson's "The Passion of the Christ." This extraordinary film, released in 2004, is a dramatic tour de force that places the audience in the midst of the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and many lives have been opened to God's grace by sharing the experience of this film.

We will gather in Gallivan Hall to watch this movie on our newly installed digital projector and large screen which rival a cinema experience, and at the end of the show, we will have a discussion of the film to explore its theological and spiritual dimensions.

Because of the intensity of this film, no one under 16 will be admitted.

St. Mary's 101 - Stations of the Cross

Each Friday during Lent, students make their way over to the church to pray the Stations of the Cross. During this devotion, we reflect on fourteen moments in the Passion and Death of Jesus. This is not merely a lesson in past events, it is a delving into the very identity of Christ.

“Jesus himself explained the meaning of his life and death in the light of God’s suffering Servant.” (Catechism of the Catholic Church 601). “Just so, the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.” (Matthew 20.28).

This prayer gives us an opportunity to walk with Jesus as he made his final steps. We reflect on the burden he bore, our role in his condemnation, and the great love that God (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit) has for all his people.

Class Feature - 8th Grade Lenten Service Project

Each year during Lent, the eighth grade sponsors fundraisers to benefit an international need through the Family Missions Company. The Family Missions Company was started in 1997, and it sends out lay Catholics to proclaim the Gospel and serve the poor both nationally and internationally. This year, the eighth grade is collecting funds to support missionaries who are serving in the Philippines.

The students are responsible for organizing the $2 St. Patrick’s Dress Day. Two Leprechauns delivered Lucky Charms cereal to the class who collected the most money over the past two weeks in the classroom fundraising competition.

On Thursday 23 March, eighth grade students went head to head against teachers in a basketball game. To get the whole school into the spirit of the game, there was a $2 Spirit Wear Dress Day.

On 31 March, eighth grade students will host a $5 movie night the students of St. Mary’s School.

On 7 April, the eighth grade will host a $2 Philippines Dress Day where students will be able to wear the colors on the Philippines’ flag: red, yellow, or blue.

Thank you for your monetary support which will help serve the needy in the Philippines!
